The digitization of Ilka Gedő's manuscripts involved the scanning of a total of 19,237 pages.

Descriptive List of Folders

The artist herself ordered and put her extensive graphic work, including several topics, into folders. Most of the titles on the folders originate from Ilka Gedő. These titles are in italic letters and translated from Hungarian. All titles and/or remarks not originating from the artist are in standing letters. The number indicated on the folder is in square brackets. The inventory of folders published below also includes the folders that have been created since the time of the artist's death. Most of the drawings have been put into passepartout by the artist.

A.) Folder with a size of 245 x 165 mm

1. Miscellaneous drawings with figurines {39}
1980-1985

B.) Folder with a size of 330 x 250 mm

16. Small figurine drawings, 1975-1980 {9}
1980-1985
These small-sized figurines and preliminary sketches were created between 1980 and 1985, and they could have provided the starting idea for an oil painting.
17. Ancient drawings to be used for paintings {11}
This folder contains the preliminary studies, the "ancient drawings" of those paintings which, though selected for future paintings, could no longer be finished as paintings by Ilka Gedő. The "ancient drawing" was split up into smaller parts with the help of a grid. The preliminary sketch often contains also the colours indicating that the whole colour world of the given painting flashed through the artist's mind before she started work on the painting.
18. Ancient drawings that have been used for painting {6}
The preliminary sketches, "ancient drawings" of finished paintings from 1975-1985.
19. Drawings in Black ink {37}
1946, 1947, the folder contains a sketchbook with 24 drawings in black. As the upper edge of the paper is perforated it may be removed from the sketchbook. On top of the stack holding the perforated pages of the sketchbook one may read in the artist's hand: the winter of 1946-1947. The folder also contains a drawing in passepartout that was originally torn out from sketchbook.

Manuscripts of Ilka Gedő--Table of Contents

The manuscripts found in the estate of Ilka Gedő have been divided into two parts. The first part includes the notebooks that record the creation of almost every painting in a diary-like manner. Diary entries concerning one oil painting may be found in several of these notebooks. The second part includes the artist's notes and/or translations on mainly art theory. The artist's notes on colour theory are of great significance for of Ilka Gedő's paintings.
